Wear Low Shoes For Comfort

The man or woman who doesn't wear low shoes misses the luxury of having perfect foot comfort. Ours are certainly comfortable. They are built of the best material the leather market affords and the shapes are right.

We have many different styles in patent leather, vici kid, velours, box calf, etc., also tan and white canvass for men, women and children.

Card Party at the Ridgewood.

A popular couple at The Ridgewood this season are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. DuFlou, of Plainfield, N. J., who have been responsible, in part at least, for many of the card parties and little social events which add to the pleasures of a stay at this popular hostelry.

On Saturday night the couple entertained Mrs. S. Gimbel, Mrs. Wm. Hartman and Messrs. Burr, Dauchy, S. Frankfield and L. H. Terry at a card party, after which refreshments were served in a private dining room of the hotel.

Pleasant Dinner Party on Ridgewood.

G. S. Myers, the wealthiest tobacco manufacturer in St. Louis, now occupying the Schantz residence, has as his guests his niece, Miss Ruby King, Miss Reitenwald and J. M. Rucker, all of St. Louis.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Oren Setten and their daughter, Mrs. George, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Matheson were pleasantly entertained at dinner by Mr. Myers and party.

Surprise Party.

About twenty-five of the young people of the city gave Miss Bertha Williamson a surprise party last week.

An orchestra was secured by the young people and refreshments were carried along. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, when all left for home, voting the occasion a most enjoyable one.

Tomoka Launch Party.

A number of guests of The Howard took the Tomoka trip yesterday on board the Grant Ferris and returned thoroughly pleased with their first sight of this beautiful stream. Many of those in the party seemed to think that the Ocklawaha trip was the only one which excelled the Tomoka, but the comfort of the boat, the number ofigators seen and the shortness of the ride more than counterbalanced the added charm of the view.

In the party were Fred. Rowe and wife, Geo. H. Barlow and wife, G. W. Waggoner and wife, Miss George Waggoner, Arthur Hill, Jas. P. Down, Ralph O. Ely, Eli Barlow and G. M. Titus, all of Corry, Pa., and Harry Pittman and wife of Indianapolis.

The day was an ideal one for this trip and the party saw many alligators. The foliage along the water is all shades of tender greens and browns, with here and there a touch of red, with always the background of palmetto and hanging moss, and every day adds to its beauty.

John A. Fiske, of Lotus, Fla., and Geo. F. Schoonmaker, of Plainfield, N. J., were guests of W. B. Clements at the Ridgewood.

A report current among carpenters to the effect that the Hotel Ormond is to be enlarged seems to have good foundation.

"Abide With Me," by Porter, was sung as a voluntary at the Episcopal church by Mrs. Waite yesterday and was much enjoyed by the congregation.

It looks decidedly odd, and by no means attractive, to see sidewalks built up to property fence lines and then continued by going around that property, instead of condemning it, and building the walks in a straight line. And that too, in the incorporated town of Seabreeze, which boasts of its beauty.

The Halifax River Yacht Club rooms were crowded Saturday night by ladies and gentlemen who were present to hear the music furnished by the club members.

RUSSIAN NOTES.

Owing to the scarcity of box cars in Russia flat cars are used for hauling grain in sacks.

Count Tolstol has opened bookstores in Moscow and at St. Petersburg. He is offering to provide books to village libraries at cheap prices.

During a "war game" played by some boys at Tcheljavinsk, in Siberia, one of them who took the part of General Kuraki was captured by the "Russians" and was actually hanged.

Several young lady students arrested in St. Petersburg owing to a misunderstanding have been asked to accept the apologies of the prefect of police, a thing without precedent in Russian history.

OLD FASHIONED.

What has become of the old fashioned woman who wore a nubia?

What has become of the old fashioned "jangling look" a lass was supposed to give her swain?

What has become of the old fashioned man who used to say, "What's the use of keeping a dog and doing your own barking?"

What has become of the old fashioned woman who made floating island and a marble cake when she expected company for supper?—Atchison Globe.
